

TRUSTED DRIVER

ISSUES FORCING CHANGE IN

Traffic Enforcement

400

DRIVERS KILLED BY LAW ENFORCEMENT
OVER THE LAST 5 YEARS
- NEW YORK TIMES

250

OFFICERS KILLED DURING TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT
OVER THE LAST 5 YEARS
- NATIONAL LAW ENFORCEMENT MEMORIAL FUND

1 TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT IS DANGEROUS

Accidents, altercations, and escalations have had deadly or life altering consequences for law enforcement and motorists.

2 LACK OF INFORMATION

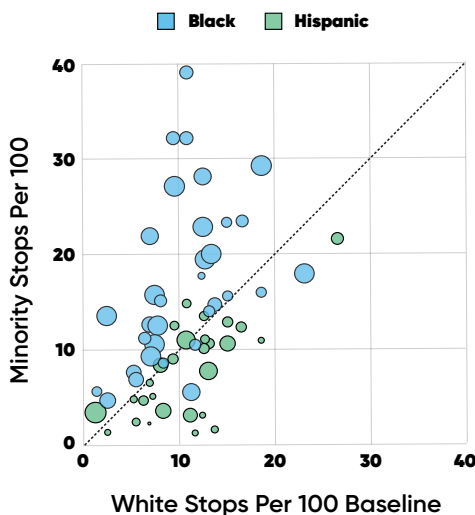

Law Enforcement has limited information on motorist. Information such as Disabilities, Mental Health, Language, History of Violence are not always available.

33% - 50%

OF USE OF FORCE INCIDENTS INVOLVE A DISABLED PERSON

- RUDERMAN FAMILY FOUNDATION REPORT

3 RACIAL BIAS

In a study analyzing 100 million traffic stops, found that racial bias exist for minority drivers in stop and search rates as a percentage of the population with black americans at the highest percentage.

BLACK DRIVERS ARE 20%
MORE LIKELY THAN WHITE
DRIVERS TO BE STOPPED BY LAW ENFORCEMENT
STANFORD OPEN POLICING PROJECT

BLACK DRIVERS ARE
1.5x
TIMES MORE LIKELY THAN WHITE
DRIVERS TO BE SEARCHED BY LAW ENFORCEMENT
STANFORD OPEN POLICING PROJECT

4 SOCIAL MOVEMENT

High Profile Cases and Protests have led governments to look for new ways to address issues around traffic enforcement and how police interact with the public.

8,700

PROTESTS

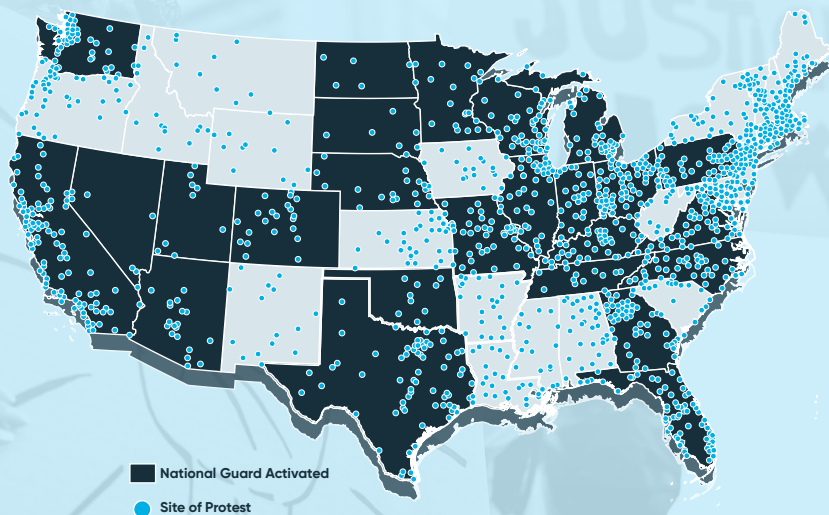

574 DECLARED RIOTS

- MAJOR CITIES CHIEF'S ASSOCIATION

2,000

POLICE OFFICERS INJURED

- MAJOR CITIES CHIEF'S ASSOCIATION

47%

COURT CASES ARE FOR MINOR TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS

- COURT STATISTICS PROJECT

5 OVERCROWDED COURTS

The Pandemic has highlighted overcrowded courts, rise of bench warrants, and slowing down of court dockets. Courts are asking for new methods such as virtual systems to handle court cases and payments.

13% to 19%

OF AN OFFICER'S TIME IS SPENT ON TRAFFIC TICKETS.

- NEW YORK TIMES

6 INEFFICIENT USE OF TIME

Traffic Enforcement is resource-intensive, inefficient, and needing of a technological upgrade. Time, money, and human resources are wasted during the entire process.

